

Fitter

Coleford, Gloucestershire, UK - Permanent - Full Time (38hrs)

This is a great opportunity to work in a strong team environment using your skills & experience as a Fitter.

There will be opportunities to:

- Work on a diverse scope of different pump assemblies
- Full training available to the hard-working & motivated candidate
- Shift work available to enhance your earning potential
- Safe, clean, friendly & enjoyable working environment.

Job Description

The assembly of pumps with either an electric motor or diesel engine.

Responsibilities

- Build bare shaft pumps to engineering drawings
- Assemble diesel skid sets to engineering drawings and bill of materials listing
- Assemble electric skid sets to engineering drawings and bill of materials listing
- Raise any assembly issues with QA Engineer and Supervisor
- Complete production data books
- Effective communication with planners, vendors, peer group, test and supervisor/manager

Job Requirements

What do you need from me?

- Recognised engineering apprenticeship
- NVQ 3 or equivalent
- Minimum 3 years experience
- Proven ability to read engineering drawings
- Self motivated, collaborative with a positive 'can-do' approach
- Logical and structured

What will we give you?

- Great basic salary
- Overtime opportunities
- Shift Allowance (double day shifts)
- 33 days holiday, incl bank holidays
- Health Care/Cash Plan
- Pension
- Cycle to work scheme
- Death in Service Benefit
- Career progression opportunities and training & development programmes
- STEM engagement and charitable activities for all
- SPP Social Club membership with social events throughout the year

What's my next step?

Please apply by uploading a CV and cover letter, and if your experience matches what we're looking for, one of our recruitment team will give you a call.

Diversity & Inclusion.

We want SPP Pumps to be a workplace where everyone feels valued, can be themselves and know they can reach their full potential. We embrace and celebrate our differences through various initiatives and support colleagues through a number of staff networks.

We're committed to building a strong, diverse workforce and making SPP Pumps an inclusive place to work.